

NAP MICROALLOCATIONS

The NAP Work Group did not generate proposals in relation to this subject.

According to current policy development procedures, proposals that have not been agreed upon by the corresponding work group can not be presented for discussion at the Public Forum.

However, this topic may be discussed through public lists and during the forum in order to receive more feedback from the Internet community.

The continuity of this Work Group and the topic under discussion shall be decided during the Public Forum to be held in Santiago, Chile, on April 25 2003.