

LACNIC Sponsorships Terms and Conditions

Airfare and transfers

- LACNIC will only purchase sponsored participants' airline tickets once they have emailed copies of their passport and other necessary travel documents (including visas).
- Sponsored participants may not design their own travel itinerary. If a sponsored participant wishes to modify or extend the itinerary purchased by LACNIC, he or she must do so directly through the airline.
- LACNIC will not be responsible for lost airline tickets or extra travel costs.
- LACNIC will not cover the cost of transfers between the sponsored participant's home, the airport and the hotel.
- Extra tickets for travel companions must be purchased directly from the airline or from a local travel agency.

Requirements before tickets can be purchased

- Passport valid for at least six (6) months after the date of travel.
- Travel documents required by the sponsored participant's country of origin, transit countries (if applicable) or the country where the meeting will take place. A visa may be required. It is EXTREMELY IMPORTANT for sponsored participants to check with their local Consulate to know what documents they will need.
- Sponsored participants must also check with their local Consulate whether a transit visa is required to travel between certain cities or countries.
- Sponsored participants must always carry proof of medical insurance. LACNIC does NOT provide medical insurance.

Hotel

- LACNIC will only cover the cost of a single hotel room. Sponsored participants will be responsible for any additional expenses incurred while at the hotel (telephone calls, room service, laundry service, movies, etc.). The hotel may require a credit card or cash deposit to guarantee these expenses.
- Only breakfast will be included in the sponsorship. LACNIC will not be responsible for participants' remaining meals.
